

Most of you who recieve this are Republicans. There will be a day of reckoning for those who have led our great country down this path of despair. Limbaugh, Hannity, Rove, Ashcroft, Cheney, Fox network and the rest of those who wrap themselves in the flag and declare THEY are the ONLY patriots are sadly mistaken. This country has pulled itself from the ashes of civil war, slavery, racism, reconstruction, world war, Macarthyism, depression, segregation, watergate and numerous other embarassments, and each time it was by the will of the people. The REAL patriots of this great nation will arise in November. Which side of the fence will you land on?
